

University of Split, Faculty of Civil Engineering, Architecture and Geodesy
Assist. Prof. Ph. D. Dujmo Žižić, M.Sc.Arch.

Dujmo Žižić graduated from the Faculty of Architecture in Zagreb, after which he worked in Split from 2003 to 2004 at the "Arhitektonska radionica centar" Ltd., and from 2004 to 2008 at the "Arhitektonski biro Ante Kuzmanić " Ltd. At the Faculty of Civil Engineering and Architecture (today the Faculty of Civil Engineering, Architecture, and Geodesy) of the University of Split, he served as an associate assistant from October 2006 to March 2008, when he was employed as an assistant at the Department of Architectural Design. Since the academic year 2014/15, he has been working at the Department of Building Science, of which he is now the head. He has been a mentor at numerous international student workshops and a co-mentor for six graduate theses.

His doctoral dissertation, "The Cement Industry in the Split Region – Architecture, Infrastructure, and Impact on the Cultural Landscape," was completed under the mentorship of Prof. Dr. Sc. Katja Marasović and defended at the Faculty of Architecture in Zagreb in 2014, earning him the academic degree of Doctor of Science. In 2015, he published a scientific book titled "The History of the Cement Industry in Dalmatia - 150 Years of Coexistence."

He is the co-author of the following original scientific articles:

- Bartulović, Bruno; Juradin, Sandra; Žižić, Dujmo; Galić, Matea: Influence of Cotton Knitted Fabric Waste Addition on Concrete Properties // Buildings, 12 (2022), 8; -, 26. doi: 10.3390/buildings12081121;

- Bartulović, Hrvoje; Žižić, Dujmo: Examples of Generating the Contemporary Fabric of the City of Split with Public Buildings // Prostor: Scientific Journal of Architecture and Urbanism, 23 (2015);

- Žižić, Dujmo; Bartulović, Hrvoje: Dietzsch-Type Cement Kilns and Their Significance for the Industrial Architecture of Dalmatia // Prostor: Scientific Journal of Architecture and Urbanism, 23 (2015);

- Žižić, Dujmo; Lalić, Ante: Planned Workers' Housing Colony in Solin in 1949 // Tusculum, 8 (2015), 245-254;

- Žižić, Dujmo; Marasović, Katja: Cement Factory and Factory Settlement in Ravnica near Omiš // Prostor: Scientific Journal of Architecture and Urbanism, 22 (2014), 1(47); 38-49.

He has participated multiple times in international scientific conferences, with full papers and abstracts published in proceedings. He has also participated as an organizer, coordinator, or member in international and local collaborations and projects such as Tempus, URBACT, and Erasmus+. He reviews scientific articles and serves on editorial boards and organizational committees of professional conferences.

He passed the professional exam in 2009, earning the professional title of "licensed architect." Since 2019, he has been authorized by the Ministry of Culture to perform tasks related to the protection and preservation of cultural heritage. Dujmo Žižić's professional activities include participation in the development of numerous urban and architectural studies and projects. He is a member of the Croatian Chamber of Architects and the professional association of the Society of Architects of Split. He participates in architectural and urban planning competitions as a competitor and a jury member. He has won three first prizes, one third prize, and two purchases. As a member of the expert team of the Faculty of Civil Engineering, Architecture, and Geodesy, he participated in the creation of the document "Strategy for the Development of the Urban Agglomeration of Split" and the "Strategy for the Development of the City of Split until 2030".