

organisation and participants:

Keio University, Laboratory Radović, Tokyo, Japan:

teachers: professor Darko Radović (KEIO), professor Davisi Boontharm (NUS, visiting prof. at KEIO) + 10 students

University of Tokyo, Laboratory Kuma, Tokyo, Japan:

teachers: professor Kengo Kuma (TODAI), assistant Ko Nakamura (TODAI) + 7 students

University of Split, Faculty of Civil Engineering, Architecture and Geodesy, Split, Croatia

teachers: professor Dario Gabrić (FGAG), senior assistant Ana Grgić (FGAG), assistant Hrvoje Bartulović (FGAG) + 7 students support and sponsors:

Mediteranski centar za graditeljsko naslijeđe

Grad Split

HULU

DAS

september 12th-20th 2011

KEIO
TODAI FGAG

Radovic Laboratory

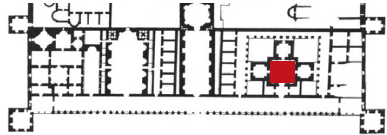

Tokyo, Japan

Kengo Kuma Laboratory

Tokyo, Japan

Katedra za urbanizam

Split, Croatia

HULU

DAS

drustvo arhitekata splita

density intensity resilience - the split case architectural and urban design workshop SPLIT 9 2011

sunday, september 18th

Diocletian's Palace, Substructures (east)

LECTURES:

14.00 -15.00:

Darko Radović (Keio University), "Tokyo - au pluriel"

15.00 -16.00:

Davisi Boontharm (NUS, visiting prof. at Keio Univ.), "Tokyo - Creative Reuse Urbanism"

16.00 -17.00:

Saša Randić (FGAG), "Dwelling the Public Space"

18.00 -19.00:

Ante Kuzmanić (FGAG), "Structure Patching"

19.00 -19.30:

Darko Radović (Keio University), "Living in Tokyo: Impressions of a Foreign Architect"

19.30 -20.30:

Kengo Kuma (University of Tokyo), "The Power of Place"